City Buying Garbage for Scientific Deal

CHICAGO (AP) — The city of Chicago is buying assortments of garbage to make its own "scientific blend."

"This is the most unusual requisition we've ever had," said John F. Ward, city purchasing agent.

Ward received requests from James M. McDonough, acting commissioner of streets and sanitation for specified garbage items to test a new compression machine which forms the garbage into bales.

"It's not as simple as it sounds," McDonough said over the weekend. "You can't just take plain old garbage off the trucks for the tests and bale it. You have to know, specifically, what is in there."

So, McDonough has asked for the following items:

Two thousand pounds of corrugated boxes, 1,000 pounds of newspapers, 600 pounds of heavy brown wrapping paper, 350 pounds of waxed milk cartons, 600 pounds of dry magazines, 250 pounds of junk office mail, 150 pounds of tissue paper, 1,100 pounds of tin cans, 400 pounds of aluminum cans, 150 pounds of plastic products and 200 pounds of chicken wire.

McDonough also asked for what was called "household waste materials", or household garbage.

"Last year we had an average of a million dollars a day in requisitions," Ward said, "but nothing like this."

McDonough said he hoped the city could obtain much of the required refuse without payment, but the purchased part, Ward said, "may run $100 to $150. Labor costs in picking it up may run a couple hundred dollars more."

Ward added that one of the men in his department has been working eight hours a day "trying to sort out our garbage to see if we've got the necessary material."

The scientific blending and testing will be conducted for three months by a four-member research team.

Teachers Join Strike at College

By STEVE BASSETT

Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco State college ended its holiday recess today with a teachers union joining striking students while California's governor prom sed to use bayonets if necessary to protect classroom operations.

The AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers' campus local voted immediate strike action Sunday night in support of its demands for union recognition, a voice in administrative action, higher wages, removal of police from the campus and compliance by the administration with student demands.

As new rules were outlined to combat disruptions, Gov. Ronald Reagan promised to use whatever force is needed.

Frank Loesser, was found dead in his parked car Saturday. His doctor said Loesser, chairman of the piano department at Cleveland Institute of Music, had a heart condition.

LODGE HAS (from page one)

Paris peace talks after Jan. 20. Both Campbell and Palmy told newsmen neither currently receives any federal agricultural subsidies.

Campbell, who still lives on an inactive dairy farm at Athens, Ga., said he never did claim a subsidy because, what with milking cows morning and night "it wasn't worth my time to go up to the courthouse and wrestle with what he termed the red tape involved in applying for a subsidy."

Palmy, who operates, with hired help, a corn and soybean farm at Garrettsville, Minn., said he stopped claiming subsidies about 10 years ago.

Harden told reporters he was certain subsidy programs would continue at least until 1970 when major farm legislation expires. He said the Nixon administration will not submit to Congress any major farm bills until that year.

Campbell, 51, a former member of the Georgia General Assembly, has served as elected commissioner of agriculture in his native state since 1954. He was one of five Georgia officials elected as Democrats who announced during the 1968 presidential campaign that they were resigning from the Democratic party and were supporting Nixon.

Palmy, 52, has been a farmer since 1940, and during the Eisenhower administration was with the Agriculture Department's Commodity Stabilization Service. He has headed the Washington office of the Feed Grains Council.

Lodge, 66 and twice ambassador to Saigon, will head an all-most-new negotiating team that, by its makeup, leaves in question Nixon's own policy attitude toward the peace efforts in Paris.

During two Saigon tours, Lodge generally mirrored the shifting but usually optimistic appraisals of the Johnson administration.

But in a statement issued Sunday in Bonn where he currently is ambassador to West Germany, Lodge said negotiators in Paris must have not only a strong desire for peace but also recognition of "the profound and painful sacrifices which have to be made."

He said the talks offer a hopeful forum for the definition of the interest of all parties involved and for the design of agreements to meet those interests.

While in Saigon, Lodge was seen as close to the personalities leading the South Vietnamese government who, of late, have been causing some disquiet among a number of high federal officials, notably Secretary of Defense Clark Clifford, by balking at "the shape of the table" in the Paris talks in which they are invited to participate.

This familiarity might enable Lodge to exert greater influence on the men or Saigon, or it could prompt him to look at their view more sympathetically.

On Saturday, Nixon had told newsmen he wanted Ellsworth Bunker—another American who seems able to talk to the Saigon chiefs—to remain indefinitely as ambassador to South Vietnam.

Ron Ziegler, Nixon's press spokesman, said in announcing the Lodge appointment that the President-elect phoned Bunker Saturday night and got a personal assurance the envoy would do what Nixon judges to be in the national interest. In other words, Bunker would remain in Saigon.

In addition to naming Lodge his personal representative and chief Paris negotiator—to replace the veteran WM Averell Harriman—Nixon through Ziegler signaled these other choices for the Paris delegation:

— Lawrence E. Walsh, 57, a Manhattan Attorney, will be deputy to Lodge. Described by Nixon as having "an outstanding reputation as a lawyer and a negotiator," Walsh was a federal district judge before serving as deputy attorney general in the Eisenhower administration under Secretary of State-designate William P. Rogers.

— Career diplomat Marshall Green, 52, will be detached from his duties as ambassador to Indonesia "to give additional professional competence and support to the negotiating team."

— Philip Habib, 48, another career foreign service officer who once served with Lodge in Saigon, will remain a member of the U.S. delegation.

As indicated earlier, deputy negotiator Cyrus Vance, a Johnson friend and appointee, has agreed to remain in Paris for about a month after Jan. 20 so, as Ziegler put it, "no momentum may be lost" and continuity preserved.

Ziegler wouldn't say what effect, if any, Lodge's reputation as advocate of a hard-line Vietnam policy would have on the talks. He said a Nixon-commissioned study of various policy options that will face the new president has not been completed.

Talks Unlikely Before the Inauguration

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON

Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — The appointment of Henry Cabot Lodge as America's chief representative at the Paris negotiations dimmed hopes today that the talks to end the Vietnam war would start before President-elect Nixon's inauguration Jan. 20.

Although Ambassador W. Averell Harriman will press efforts to launch the conference in the two weeks he has left, there seemed to be nothing the Americans could do to break the deadlock over such procedural matters as the shape of the conference table and the seating arrangements.

To the South Vietnamese, taking things slowly in the hope of greater sympathy from the new administration, Nixon's appointment of Lodge came as a shot in the arm. The Saigon leaders regarded Lodge, whom they got to know as U.S. ambassador in Saigon, as a hardline hawk and a good friend to the present military regime.

Lodge's statement in Bonn Sunday night that he regards a settlement in Vietnam "of supreme importance" seemed to mean little to them.

South Vietnam's chief delegate to the talks, Ambassador Pham Dang Lam, has had more than one stormy session with Harriman. But Lam, a former foreign minister, was on fine personal terms with Lodge.

Leading members of President Nguyen Van Thieu's government focused much of their disappointment with President Johnson's decision to halt the bombing of North Vietnam on Harriman. Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky spoke of misunderstandings with Harriman and attributed them to the 77-year-old envoy's failing hearing.

Harriman wears a hearing aid. Ky in particular is said to be

Dec. 16—Marine Private Truman D. Arrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Arrington of Route 2, Hope, Ark., was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

In that group of members of Thieu's government who boast close personal ties with Lodge.

"Lodge knows and likes Ky very much," one South Vietnamese said, "and Ky likes him."

Hanoi and the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front will be on the lookout for signs of a closer alignment of the Washington-Saigon positions after Jan. 20, and if this happens their own position inevitably will harden.

Some U.S. officials seem worried that the effect of Lodge's appointment might be to undercut Harriman's authority between now and Jan. 20. But President Johnson has made clear that he intends to go on governing until the bell rings for him so his envoys will press on.

As things stand now, North Vietnam and the Viet Cong are standing fast on their plan for spent too much money," Mansfield said. "I think it is time to reorganize, tighten our belts."

He was interviewed on CBS' "Face the Nation."

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said he believes the 91st Congress will be more middle of the road than the 90th — and one that will respond to what he called Nixon's broad range of domestic and foreign programs.

"We'll get some help from liberal Democrats in some programs," Ford said, "and help from the more conservative elements" in others.

Ford appeared on NBC's "Meet the Press."

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, said there should be a minimum of partisanship between Republican Nixon and the Democrat-controlled Congress but added, "you can't give him a blank check."

Muskie said he does not believe Nixon will try to repeal much recent Democratic legislation just as he said President Eisenhower did not try to repeal any New Deal legislation.

"I don't expect it now," Muskie said. "I do expect proposals to modify it, to improve it, to bring about reforms."

Muskie was interviewed on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

The Electoral College system challenge today by Muskie and Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., was made, they said, to dramatize a need for reform of the presidential election process.

They challenged the vote of a North Carolina elector who ran pledged to Nixon but cast his ballot instead for third party candidate George C. Wallace.

Legal and historical precedent, Muskie and O'Hara argued, require that electors follow the dictate of the popular presidential vote and not go their own way.

an unadorned roundtable that would give them both a status at the talks equal to that of their antagonists.

Dear Helen: Would you please re-print "What is a Grandmother?" HOPEFUL

Dear Hopeful: How about another version, this from a third grader. It recently appeared in a Seattle newspaper.

A Grandmother is a lady who has no children of her own: She likes other people's little girls. A Grandfather is a man grandmother. He goes for walks with the boys and they talk about fishing and tractors, and like that.

Grandmas don't have to do anything except be there. They're old, so they shouldn't play hard or run. It is enough if they drive us to the market where the pretend horse is, and have lots of dimes ready. Or, if they take us for walks, they should never say "hurry up."

Usually they are fat but not too fat to tie your shoes. They wear glasses and funny underwear. They can take their teeth and gums off.

It is better if they don't type-write or play cards, except with us. They don't have to be smart, only answer questions like, "Why do dogs hate cats," and "How come God isn't married?" They don't talk baby talk like visitors do because it is hard to understand. When they read to us, they don't skip or mind if it is the same story again. Everybody should try to have one, especially if you don't have television, because grandmas are the only grown-ups who have time. — AUTHOR UNKNOWN

Bobcats in Victory Over Ashdown

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Five free throws in the final 45 seconds were just enough, as the Hope Bobcats staved off a valiant comeback attempt and trimmed the Ashdown Panthers 73-72 Saturday night at Jones Field House.

The win took some of the sting out of the 102-43 loss to Magnolia the night before, and moved Hope's mark to 4-6 for the year. Ashdown fell to 7-5, including an earlier 66-53 defeat to the Bobcats in December.

Coming out with an effective full-court press, Hope jumped to a 10-3 lead in four minutes. The Panthers reversed that spree immediately, however, with a 12-0 burst of their lead own in two minutes to provide Ashdown 17-14 margin at the quarter.

Unable to make their lead hold up, the visitors suffered from lack of control on the backboard nearly cost the Cats the ball game.

Junior Johnny Johnson took charge midway in the second period, moving underneath to score several tips and total 8 points for the quarter. Missed free shots by Ashdown lost their edge, and charity shots on the other side affected the 31-27 lead Hope held at halftime.

Both squads came out fighting after the intermission, and the third segment provided the good crowd an exciting 37 points. Baskets by Terry Turner and Danny Reyenga quickly moved the Bobcats 8 points ahead, and for four minutes the bulge held true between 4 and 8 points.

Those fouls began catching up with Hope by 1:22 left in the quarter, though, as Turner fouled out of the game. The subsequent free throws brought Ashdown as close as 47-46, but Reyenga's closing basket made it 49-46 entering the last period.

Amazingly, by the time 3:40 remained, the crowd was nearly ready to go home with the Bobcats torridly moving to a 62-52 lead, but nobody told Ashdown that. In three minutes and five seconds the Panthers outscored Hope 18-8, and with 0:35 on the board it was knotted at 70-70.

Ronny Brown hit one end of a 1-and-1 to put the Cats on top 71-70, and with 10 seconds to play Pa., 74 NY Tech 98, Quantico Marines 91.

Jones' 37 Points Were Not Enough

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

You know that saying about keeping up with the Joneses. Well, the Minnesota Pipers did, but the New York Nets couldn't.

Larry Jones scored 37 points for Denver but they weren't enough as the Rockets bowed 120-111 to Eastern Division-leading Minnesota Sunday night in an American Basketball Association game.

Connie Hawkins scored 38 points for the Pipers, who snapped a three-game losing streak and broke Denver's winning string of six games.

Jimmy Jones' 34 points and Steve Jones' 17 were too much for New York as the New Orleans Buccaneers beat the Nets 98-91. Manny Leaks scored 23 points for the Nets, who lost their sixth straight.

In the only other ABA action, Freddie Lewis scored 27 points and Steve Chubin 19 as Indiana defeated Houston 107-101. Steve Johnson paced Houston with 23.

In the National Basketball Association Sunday, Philadelphia downed Detroit 126-119, Boston blasted San Francisco 134-86 and Atlanta edged Phoenix 97-

UCLA Wins, Alcindor Loses Cool

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer Large Lew Alcindor blew his top, unaccountable, during another predictable UCLA basketball triumph. Little Lou Carnesecca blew his cool, predictably, after another stunning St. John's coup.

Alcindor, UCLA's usually gentle giant, tossed in 34 points and then threw a temper tantrum in the midst of the top-ranked Bruins' 96-64 romp over Tulane Saturday night.

Coach John Wooden benched Alcindor with 12½ minutes remaining when the 7-foot-1½ All-American drew a technical foul for heaving the ball in the air in protesting a personal foul call.

Carnesecca, the volatile St. John's pilot, went merrily berserk, meanwhile, as his Redmen rallied in the closing seconds of overtime to nip previously unbeaten Davidson 65-74 for their second upset victory in a week over a No. 2 ranked powerhouse.

"He called me after the game," Carnesecca's wife, Mary, said in New York Sunday. "He was rather incoherent and deliciously happy. He kept saying, over and over, 'My boys never died; my boys never died.'"

After ambushing then second-ranked North Carolina 72-70 a week earlier in the semifinals of the Holiday Festival at New York, the Redmen gained the No. 17 spot in the Associated Press ratings... only to be pasted by UCLA 74-56 in the Festival title game.

They trailed Davidson 74-71 with seven seconds to play in overtime when Joe DePre hit with a jump shot. The Wildcats then lost the ball on an out of bounds violation and, with two seconds remaining, 6-foot-10 sophomore Bill Paulitz popped in the winning field goal from the corner.

John Warren scored 25 points and DePre 24 for the 8-2 Redmen. Mike Maloy's 31 topped Davidson, 8-1.

Alcindor lost his temper—and was yanked as a disciplinary measure for the first time in three years at UCLA—after connecting on 15 of 18 shots from the floor.

Wooden explained that he lifted Lew because he didn't want the referees to think he couldn't control his team. "We start our conference season next week and I don't want the referees to get mad at me," he said. "Lew didn't need the work and I wanted to see Steve Patterson in action."

Patterson Alcindor's 6-9 backup man, scored nine points and grabbed 11 rebounds the rest of the way as the Bruins reeled off their ninth victory this season and 25th in succession.

Third-ranked Kentucky, triggered by reserve Randy Pool's six points down the stretch, trimmed Mississippi 69-59 in its Southeastern Conference opener. North Carolina, which slipped to No. 4 after bowing to St. John's, demolished Duke 94-70 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game as Charlie Scott fired in 34 points.

Jo White's 15 points sparked fifth-ranked Kansas to a 56-52 Big Eight Conference nod over Nebraska and No. 6 Santa Clara, led by Bud Ogden's 25 points, bested San Francisco 86-66 for a 12-0 mark.

No. 8 Illinois and No. 12 New Mexico State, the only other unbeaten major teams, kept rolling, the 10-0 Illini routing Minnesota 80-58 in their Big Ten Conference blow and the 11-0 Aggies smashing Iowa State 85-62.

Once-beaten, ninth-ranked Villanova edged No. 20 St. Bonaventure 87-66 on Frank Gillen's 25-foot buzzer shot, but No. 7 Detroit and No. 10 Cincinnati fell in upsets.

Marquette tripped Detroit 85-71 despite 35 points by Titan soph Spencer Hayward and Wichita State slugged Cincinnati 67-66 on Greg Rataj's last minute jump shot in a Missouri Valley Conference reversal.

In Sunday's only major college action, Boston College's Frank Fitzgerald dropped in a 15-footer with one second left, giving the Eagles a 76-74 victory over St. Joseph's, Pa.

96, Baltimore at Milwaukee and the Chicago-Cincinnati game at Omaha, Neb., were postponed. Oakland outlasted Los Angeles 140-135, Denver topped Dallas 115-90, Kentucky took New Orleans 112-102 and Indiana nipped Minnesota 103-102 in the ABA Saturday night.

Ashdown Girls Are Still Champs

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Everything that the state champion Ashdown Pantherettes were last year, they are again this year. And they showed it to the fans Saturday night at Jones Field House, beating the game Hope Lady Cats 60-38.

In the first game the Ashdown Panther Cubs had easy past the Hope Bobkittens 48-32.

The Pantherettes are now 8-2 this year, with both losses coming to Bradley. The defeat moved the Lady Cats' record to 4-7, but they can be proud of the game they gave Ashdown.

For three minutes the Hope girls weren't too proud, though, as the Pantherette forwards controlled the ball and a 13-3 lead. Rebounding, the Lady Cats pulled within 7 points before dropping back 18-7 at the quarter.

Ashdown Coach Helen Parker substituted rather freely in resting all of her starters in the second period, but the aroused Hope guards held the opposing substitutes scoreless for the final 3½ minutes of the first half, as the deficit was cut from 28-13 to 26-21.

Now putting the starters back in to finish off the prey, Ashdown this time was met head on by about the best effort for the Lady Cats of the season. The Pantherettes couldn't put the game away, as Sandra Sallee, Eva Jo Hale, and Debbie Powell led a scoring race through the most frantic minutes.

When the quarter ended Hope trailed 43-30, but the state champions hit their stride in the final minutes to increase the final margin while more Lady Cats were seeing action.

Both sides had remarkable balanced scoring attacks, but in different ways. Leading Hope were Powell and Sallee with 8 points apiece, and Mary Beth Millican and Dee Singleton both swished 6. Hale and Jo McKamie added 5 each to add to 38.

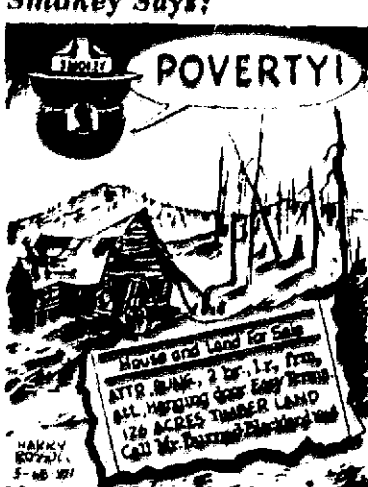

For Ashdown, the three juniors forwards were led by Gayle Altenbaumer, who fired in 22 points. Nita McGraw collected 20 points to match her season average, and Suzanne Walker was on the beam for 18 more.

Back in December the Hope Bobkittens had beaten Ashdown 26-24, but the Panther Cubs got their revenge with a second-half shooting binge to make up the 48-32 tally.

Down only 19-16 at halftime, the Kittens were held to 5 points in the third quarter while the Cubs rolled up 13 for a 32-21 lead. They played it about even from there until Bobkittens Lynn Norton and Buddy Ingram fouled out in the late going. The loss lowered the locals' record for the winter to 3-4.

Tomorrow night returns the junior and senior girls teams to action, as they journey with the "B" Lizards to Emmet for three games beginning at 6:00 p.m.

Dallas Edges Minnesota in Playoff

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

Associated Press Sports Writer MIAMI (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys beat the Minnesota Vikings 17-13 Sunday in what could be the last National Football League playoff bowl game as it is now constituted—at least in Miami.

The contract between the NFL and the Orange Bowl ended with Sunday's dull game before 22,961 rain drenched fans. Bowl officials apparently feel the game between second place finishers in the NFL's two conferences lacks interest for fans and players.

The NFL has two more years on a television contract for the game, and could decide to continue it at another site—New Orleans is believed interested—rather than change the format. The game has produced over a million dollars in nine years for the players' pension fund.

As presently constituted, the game has nothing at stake, except the $1,200 share per player on the winning team and $500 for losing players. Dallas Coach Tom Landry said last week that this is a fun-work week and teams don't give the game the 24-hour concentration needed for a top performance.

Landry said after Sunday's game that the victory meant little, but his players were determined to show they could bounce back. "If we proved anything, we proved that this club can rebound," Landry said.

Dallas was down after blowing the Eastern Conference championship ship two weeks ago to underdog Cleveland 31-20. Landry said earlier he wasn't sure how his team would react from its big disappointment. He found out, although at the start it appeared Dallas was still suffering from its Cleveland hangover.

Minnesota, winner of the Central Division title, jumped to a 13-0 lead in the first period. Bob Bryant ran back a punt 81 yards for a touchdown—longest return in the nine-year history of the series—and Fred Cox kicked two field goals.

Landry had high praise for quarterback Don Meredith. He rallied the Cowboys from a 13-0 first quarter deficit to 13-10 at halftime. Meredith completed 15 of 24 passes for 243 yards and one touchdown and was voted the outstanding player of the game.

Landry sent Craig Morton in at quarterback for the second half. After Dallas linebackers Chuck Howley and Lee Roy Jordan pressured Minnesota punter King Hill into a 14-yard punt in the third period, Morton went to work. He completed a 21-yard pass to Craig Baynham for a first down at the 13. After losing to the 20, Morton hit Baynham again for the 20-yard winning touchdown.

Celtics Spoil Warriors Family Affair

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The wives and children of the San Francisco Warriors attend the club's annual Family Day game. But those sport-lovers Boston Celtics showed up, too.

With John Havlicek scoring 33 points, the Celtics crushed the Warriors 134-86 Sunday in the nationally televised National Basketball Association game. Fritz Williams topped the Warriors with 17 points.

In other action, Philadelphia downed Detroit 126-119 and Atlanta nipped Phoenix 97-86. The Baltimore at Milwaukee game was postponed when Baltimore's plane was grounded because of mechanical trouble and the Chicago-Cincinnati contest at Omaha, Neb., was switched to tonight because of hazardous weather conditions.

In the American Basketball Association, Indianapolis beat Houston 107-101, New Orleans took New York 98-91 and Minnesota downed Denver 120-111. Hal Greer and Billy Cunningham each scored 30 points as Philadelphia fought off a second-half Detroit rally. Happy Harston led Detroit with 27.

Lou Hudson's 33 points paced Atlanta to its 13th victory in 11 games and sent Phoenix to its 10th straight loss. Dick Van Arsdale and Dick Snyder each scored 22 points for Phoenix.

Saturday night, Baltimore topped Philadelphia 117-112, New York beat Detroit 111-103, Chicago whipped Phoenix 103-92, Los Angeles upended Atlanta 121-111 and San Diego trounced Seattle 122-105.

Magnolia Toys With Bobcats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

With seven players remarkably scoring in the double figures, the Magnolia Panthers outclassed the Hope Bobcats 102-34 in a nightmare for the locals at Magnolia last Friday night.

Although every team dreams of scoring 100 points in a game, this was the first time in modern history that the Bobcats were on the short end of such a score. The loss set Hope's mark at 3-6, on a night in which the "B" Lizards and the Bobkittens also suffered defeats.

Magnolia, though, presented with flying colors its group of transfers from Columbia High School, whose junior high squad made it to the state finals and the senior Owls made the Class A semis. Top additions were Jerry Caldwell, Robert Sterling, and James Hill, and they all struck the double figures.

Simply unable to score from outside, which is a crucial part of the Hope offensive attack, the Bobcats suffered many turnovers in route to a 56-23 half-time deficit, at which time Magnolia had connected on 55 per cent from the field.

Coach Connie Maloch returned his starters to action for the final four minutes as the crowd yelled for 100 points. Ricky Putman hit 18 points and Jim Singleton 14 to lead the Bobcats; Johnny Johnson canned 8, Danny Reyenga had 2, and Terry Turner contributed 1.

Sterling had 17 and Jerry Alford 15 to pace the Panthers, but the horde behind them included Randy Ross' 13, Caldwell's 12, and Hill's 11 points. Dave Horton and Billy Daugherty sacked 10 apiece to close out the leaders.

In the junior game the Magnolia Panther Cubs stretched their season mark to 18-0 by subduing the Hope Bobkittens 50-20.

Trailing 24-12 at the half, the Kittens quickly pulled within ten points before three quick fouls sent high scorer and rebounder Lynn Norton to the sidelines for the rest of the game. Magnolia controlled the inside game from that point forward, and though couldn't be lowered.

Presently 3-3 for the season, the Bobkittens return to action at 6:00 p.m. tonight against Ashdown.

The evening's opening contest saw the Magnolia "B" team fight hard to eke out a 51-47 nod over the Hope "B" Lizards in a tight contest throughout.

Behind seven points at halftime (22-15), the locals pulled to within a single point at 37-36 early in the final segment before a few easy baskets nailed down the win for Magnolia.

Ronny Brown sank 14 points and Fred McManus 11 to lead Hope, James Simmons and Parker Powell totaled 8 apiece. Then Thomas Norvell netted 3, Charles Frazier scored 2, and Ronnie Masseneili had a single point.

Williamson knotted 13 points to pace Magnolia, and Smith and Schultz followed with 8 each.

Trinity, Lamar Tech Continue Their Battle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Trinity University and Lamar Tech continue their battle for Southland Conference basketball supremacy this week while the rest of the league fights for third place.

Trinity is ranked third in the nation in The Associated Press small college basketball poll with an 8-2 record and Lamar Tech, playing a major college schedule, is 10-0.

Tech and Trinity have the only winning records in the league.

The leaders both open conference warfare this week against the University of Texas at Arlington, the third place team with a 4-7 record. Lamar Tech plays UT Arlington tonight and Trinity will return from a West Coast trip to meet the Rebels Saturday.

Trinity defeated Brown University 79-64 in its only game last week. Lamar squeaked past Centenary College 68-62 Saturday night.

North Stars Winners in Hula Bowl

HONOLULU (AP) — There's no substitute for experience, even when it comes to muddy football fields, unless your name is O.J. Simpson.

The 23rd Hula Bowl game was played Saturday on a field rendered practically impassable by two days of tropical downpour, and the standout players in Honolulu Stadium were fellows who've seen mud before.

Water buffalo Bill Enyart, Oregon State's and 235-pound fullback, won back-of-the-game honors by a narrow margin over Southern California's Simpson and said that he credited it to the fact that he is used to muddy fields in Oregon.

Enyart scored both touchdowns for the North All-Stars in a 13-7 victory in the nationally televised game. Simpson got the only score for the South with a dazzling 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

Two other Oregonians, Warner Wong and George Dames, recovered two South fumbles each and a pair of fellows who last met on the same gridiron in similar conditions, Tim Buchanan of Hawaii and Ed White of California, battled it out for lineman honors.

Buchanan got the voting edge.

NCAA Takes Up Costs, Freshmen

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Wor-ry over rising costs of intercol- legiate athletics and the prob- lem of what to do with freshmen in the sports setup were chief concerns today as the National Collegiate Athletic Association opened its 63rd annual conven- tion.

A return to one-platoon foot- ball to reduce the size of squads and coaching staffs goes under scrutiny this afternoon at a round table discussion.

Actually, the substitution rule is the prerogative of the rules committee but the convention can exert an influence. On Sun- day, Chairman John Waldorf and secretary Dave Nelson of the rules committee met with the executive council to discuss the situation.

"Our big concern is the mat- ter of rising costs," NCAA Pres- ident Marcus Plant of Michigan told a news conference. He said many opinions were voiced at the council meeting, with one segment favoring the present free substitution or two-platoon system and another talking in favor of the sin gle platoon with limited substitution.

Although the convention can make recommendations, Plant conceded, "We'd be opening a Pandora's box if a group as large as this got into the mattz of changing rules."

Later this month the rules committee meets in Palm Springs to decide the ultimate outcome.

An answer to the freshman rule comes sooner. A year ago, the NCAA voted to permit fresh- man competition in varsity sports except football and bas- ketball.

Now, one strong segment wants freshmen to be eligible for all and another wants the frosh limited to competition be- tween themselves in all sports.

Sports information directors reported starts of a study on the public relations aspect of the black athlete, its problems and attitudes.

Texans Name Fry as Coach of the Year

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—South- ern Methodist football mentor Hayden Fry has been named the autumn Senior College Coach of the Year by the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Fry took what was expected to be the doormat of the South- west Conference and welded it into a high-octane offensive machine that climaxed a 7-3 season with a stunning 28 - 27 upset victory over Oklahoma in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Under Fry's guidance, the Mustangs lost only to Rose Bowl champion Ohio State, Cot- ton Bowl champion Texas, and Sugar Bowl champion Arkan- sas.

Fry said before the season started: "We were rebuilding las. year and we will have to rebuild again this year."

It appears Fry did some mighty fine rebuilding.

He will receive his award at the annual All Sports Banquet in Dallas later this winter.

Rod Rust of North Texas State, Darrell Royal of Texas and John Bridgers, the fired Baylor coach, finished behind Fry in that order.

The Hope High School Office Practice Class saw filing in ac- tion at Anderson-Frazier Insur- ance Company and the Citizens Bank Friday morning, January 3.

Having completed several weeks of classroom study of basic filing procedures, the group left their books to see how busi- nesses use this skill.

"They learned that correct filing is basic no matter how many machines or employees a business organization may have," said Mrs. Penny Formby, Henderson State College prac- tice teacher who accompanied the girls.

Philadelphia Flyers Like Tie Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Philadelphia Flyers got a tie for Christmas and they liked it so much they've latched on to a whole bunch of them for the new year.

The Flyers, forced to play short-handed for the final four minutes, 46 seconds, hung on to a 2-2 deadlock against Toronto Sunday night for their third Na- tional Hockey League tie of the new year and fifth in the last six games. The streak started, ap- propriately enough on Christ- mas night.

In other NHL games Sunday, New York whacked Minnesota 5-1, Detroit edged Pittsburgh 2-1, Montreal dropped Chicago 4-2 and Oakland battled Los An- geles to a scoreless tie.

In Saturday's games, Toronto slugged New York 5-3 with Norm Ullman scoring three goals and running his lifetime total to 350—eighth highest in NHL history—Chicago rapped Montreal 6-3, Boston and Minne- sota played a 2-2 tie, St. Louis dropped Detroit 3-1 and Pitts- burgh battled Philadelphia to a 1-1 tie.

Goalie Bernie Parent pre- served Philadelphia's latest tie with some strong saves after a major penalty to Forbes Kenne- dy left and Flyers a man short from 15:14 of the third period until the end of the game against Toronto.

Kennedy high-sticked Jim Dorey and cut him for three stitches, incurring the penalty.

Guy Gendron and Andre Lac- roix gave the Flyers an early lead but Bill Sutherland and Paul Henderson countered for Toronto.

Ron Stewart and Rod Gilbert scored two goals apiece, leading New York to its best offensive show in more than two months. The last time the Rangers scored as many as five goals in a single game was Oct. 30.

Four of New York's goals came in a furious second period in which they shelled ex-team- mate Cesare Maniago with 19 shots before he was relieved by Gary Bauman midway through the period. New York finished with 49 shots for the night.

Gordie Howe's 18th goal of the season, the 11th game-winner of his 23-season NHL career, de- feated Pittsburgh for Detroit. Howe's low wrist shot beat Les Binkley at 5:58 of the third pe- riod, snapping a tie.

Bruce MacGregor, killing a penalty to Howe, scored De- troit's first goal and Bob Woyto- wicz, who had just left the pen- alty box, tied it for the Pen- guins.

Jacques Lemaire scored a pair of first-period goals and Montreal, which had dropped three of the previous four games, moved back into first place in the East Division by beating Chicago.

Ted Harris, who scored while killing a penalty, and Dick Duff also hit for the Canadiens while Stan Mikita and Eric Nesteren- ko connected for the Black Hawks.

The victory moved Montreal one point ahead of idle Boston while Chicago slipped into a third-place tie with Toronto, four points behind.

The 0-0 deadlock between Oakland and Los Angeles was the third in the NHL in the past two weeks.

LA goalie Gerry Desjardins kicked out 20 shot and Gary Smith, the Seals' goalie, blocked 25.

GATWICK, England (AP) — The pilot of the Afghan jet air- liner that crashed south of Lon- don early Sunday killing 60 peo- ple, may have misunderstood the visibility report from the airport, investigators said to- day.

The Afghan pilot decided to make a landing run despite a warning from Gatwick Airport that visibility on the runway was down to 100 meters, or 328 feet.

Although the Boeing 727 was being guided by the airport's in- strument landing system, the decision to land was up to the captain. Board of Trade inspec- tor George Kelley said the mini- mum acceptable visibility for a Boeing 727 to land was about 400 meters.

The investigators also said the plane should have been 300 feet up at the point where it crashed into a farm house two miles from the runway.

When the pilot called Gatwick for a weather report about 2:30 a.m. Sunday, no aircraft had landed there for 10 hours be- cause of thick fog. The Board of Trade said that after being told that the visibility was down to the 100 meters in freezing fog, "the pilot elected to make an approach, indicating that if he overshoot he would divert to another airport."

Only 15 people survived the crash, including a baby girl asleep in the farm house, which was smashed to rubble. Her parents were killed.

Most of the 54 passengers and eight crew members aboard the Ariana Afghan Airlines plane were Afghans, Indians and Pak- istanis coming from Kabul to London.

Among the dead was Karen- Mix, about 16, daughter of a Pan American Airways mainte- nance man on loan to the Af- ghan airline. She was believed to be returning to the United States after spending Christmas with her father in Kabul.

Hope High School Class of 1958 Holds Reunion

Itinerant Learns a Skill; Now He's an Airplane Inspector

By JUDI DANIEL
Associated Press Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Evaristo Sandoval traveled around the nation from one short-lived job to another a year ago, barely seeking out an existence for his family.

Today Sandoval worries less about his own security and more about the pilots who fly the planes he inspects.

"The Navy is depending on us," he said. "If the job is not done right a pilot could get killed."

Sandoval was one of many jobless Mexican-Americans in the Lower Rio Grande Valley until a Dallas-based industry took a mobile classroom to him.

The company trained him and others, moved them with their families to Dallas and gave them a new way of life.

And what the labor mobility project did for Ling-Temco-Vought Aerospace Corp. is seen by company officials as highly profitable.

It added 684 skilled workers at a time when the unemployment rate in the Dallas metropolitan area had dropped to below two per cent. Column after column of classified ads begged for people to go to work.

Pictured are members of the 1958 graduating class of Hope High School, The Hope Country Club was the scene of a reunion held December 21. Forty-five of the ninety-four classmates attended.

1969 May Be the Year of Accessory

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — From a fashion viewpoint, 1969 may well turn out to be "The Year of the Accessory." And topping off the list of "must" items for every woman's closet will be what else?—a brand new hat.

The Millinery Institute of America presented samples from the spring collections of designers like Adolfo, Mr. John and Emme Sunday in the wind-up of a four-day series of clothes collections sponsored by the New York Couture group.

Sunday afternoon began the second of the two spring previews, the American Designer Showings.

Hats were soft and feminine—either in style or fabric, sometimes in both. All the designers stressed the costume look, advocating careful coordination among the various pieces of a woman's outfit.

For the first year, there were hats designed specifically to go with the new pants suits.

Adolfo showed a white, wide-brimmed felt hat with brim softly turned up on one side, topped a one-piece black jumpsuit and gray coat. Emme matched a turban to the tan and white striped blouse of a three-piece pants suit. And for evening, there was Jack McConnell's wizard-like turban of a multicolored print which matched the model's bare-midriff harem outfit.

To go with dresses, there was a group of hats titled, "The American Way." Escorted by a man in an Uncle Sam costume, the models paraded back and forth in sprightly red, white and blue hats. One of the highlights was Frank Olive's off-the-face roller hat with an American eagle print.

And for the woman who collects "status" items—the Gucci shoe, the signature scarf, the chain belt—there were "status" hats. All had brims and were casually soft. Many, like Yves Saint Laurent's fedora, matched a band on the hat to a belt or scarf on the skirt. The St. Laurent featured a gold metal hat band and matching belt.

Opening the American Designer Showings, was Arnold Scaasi's collection for Tanneil Knits. Ranging in price from $65 to $125, the outfits featured textured weaves giving a bas relief appearance, gently moulded bodices, fitted waists and bias-cut sections.

A new idea was vinyl on knits, dramatically shown in a costume including a bright orange vinyl cape, lined in an abstract blue and orange knit and worn over a matching knit dress. Similar prints in different colors and styles were banded with plastic at the neck or hem.

LR Police Seeking Pay Raises

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Little Rock Municipal Police Association took the first step Sunday toward requesting a $100-a-month pay raise for city policemen.

About 75 members of the association, which included nearly half of the present strength of the department, elected a six-man committee to seek the backing of Police Chief R. E. Briens and then take the pay raise proposal to the City Manager Board.

who cast his ballot for third-party candidate George C. Wallace although he had been pledged to vote for Nixon.

They said the challenge—in what would otherwise be a routine congressional canvass of Nixon's 301 to 191 victory—intended to dramatize a need for election reform.

The challenge procedure called for the House and Senate to sop he roll call count of electoral votes by state at North Carolina and return to their separate chambers to debate the objection.

Approval by both bodies was needed to uphold the challenge.

Formal declaration of Republican Nixon as President-elect after the vote canvass was resumed in joint meeting and completed was a foregone conclusion. So was declaration of Spiro T. Agnew as vice president-elect.

Nixon and Agnew will be inaugurated Jan. 20.

The Muskie-O'Hara challenge asked Congress to invoke for the first time an 83-year-old law permitting rejection of electoral votes "not regularly given."

Bailey of Rocky Mount, N.C., broke with the 12 others state, holding he was free to vote as he pleased in the Electoral College.

With Bailey's vote, Wallace received a total of 46 electoral ballots in electoral voting in the respective state capitals Dec. 16.

Muskie and O'Hara said legal and historical precedents, if not the Constitution, mandate that an elector cast his ballot for the candidate to whom he was pledged in the election.

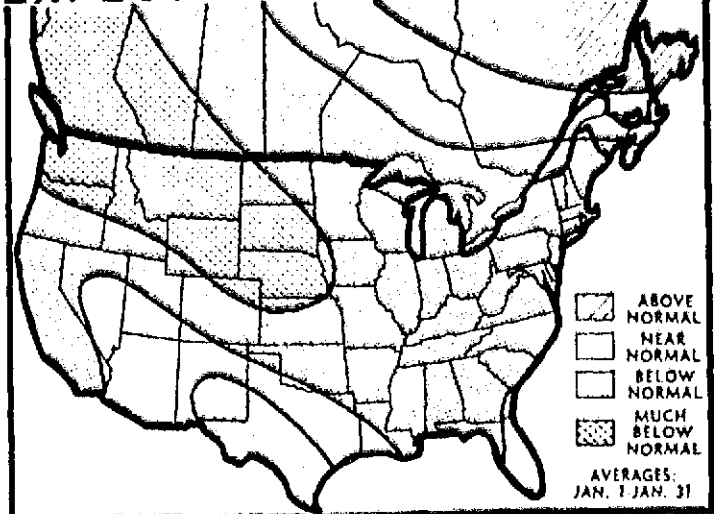

"Dr. Bailey was not elected by the voters of North Carolina to exercise his own judgment," Muskie has contended.

The Maine senator, who was Humphrey's running mate in the 1968 election and O'Hara, chairman of the Democratic Study Group in the House, argue that North Carolina voters, in giving Nixon a majority,

Short Story

"Hippie hair" that hides the neck makes barbers of Massachusetts "sick to the stomach," said the association president. Not only that, he said, it also is hurting the barbers' business and is forcing some of them to "cut down on their staffs."

It is not surprising that the barbers have decided to blame the "hippie" for their predicament. But it should be apparent that all the men walking around with long hair these days are not "hippies." Some of them are former barber shop customers who can't afford the price of a haircut any more. — Nashville (Tenn.) Tennessean

Eying The Ladies

Some observers apparently are confused about conversion to the metric system of girls' measurements, but we prefer not to think in terms of cold statistics whether they be inches, feet or millimeters. When it comes to judging beauty, is it not still to be measured by the eye of the beholder? Only those too insensitive on account of age or some other disability need a tape measure to confirm what should be obvious. — Charleston (S.C.) News and Courier

The Vassar Man

Several explanations for going coed are offered by single-sex colleges, but one of the most popular is that it "will prevent the possibility of social-adjustment problems in postcollegiate years."

Well, maybe so. But it could create a problem or two as well. For instance, looking at the strapping six-footer's employment application and finding, "Vassar '75," is going to require some adjustment on the personnel man's part — mainly an adjustment to deadpan. — Dallas (Tex.) Morning News.

Access Route

At its first quarterly meeting last week the Hempstead County Manufacturers & Processors Association voted to go on record in full support of the Arkansas Highway Commission's recommendations on location of access roads and overpass to and from Interstate 30. The Association also unanimously voted on a proposal to recommend to the city, county and state officials to undertake a feasibility study of a "city loop" or by-pass around the city of Hope.

This would provide a means of channeling heavy truck traffic around rather than directly through our town, said President Jerry Winer.

A cold front is expected to move through Arkansas by early tonight, bringing colder temperatures to the state.

Some light rain is expected as the front moves through the state.

Temperatures Sunday rose somewhat over the state as southerly winds picked up on the back side of the high pressure system that had been dominating the Arkansas weather.

High readings in the state Sunday were mostly in the 40s with Fort Smith recording a high of 50.

Challenge to Electoral System

By ROBERT T. GRAY

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The formal declaration of Richard M. Nixon's election as the nation's 37th President by Congress today comes hand-in-hand with a rare challenge involving the 181-year-old presidential electoral system.

The House and Senate, meeting in joint session, are charged by the Constitution with counting the votes cast in the Electoral College last month, thus making Nixon's victory over Hubert H. Humphrey official.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, and Rep. James G. O'Hara issued the challenge to the electoral vote of Dr. Lloyd W. Bailey of North Carolina.

Home Most Dangerous Place; 19 Millions Hurt There Each Year

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Home is a dangerous place, probably more dangerous than where you work. Each year 19 million Americans — 106 out of every 1,000 persons — are hurt in home accidents.

Life is getting more leisurely for the average American. One hundred years ago he worked 65 hours a week. Today, working only 40 hours weekly, he earns enough to afford creature comforts that were unavailable to kings in the 19th century.

Baggy eyes aren't by any means an indication that one has been imbibing too much of the cup that cheers. Dr. McCarthy DeMere, a Memphis plastic surgeon, says they are often a congenital condition caused by weak membranes around the eye socket.

Where does poverty begin? Economist Leon Keyserling believes any family is deprived if it has an annual income of less than $6,000 and faces actual poverty if its income is under $4,000.

During the 1880s some 100,000 wooden Indians stood outside U.S. tobacco shops — about half the actual number of live Indians at that time.

New Congress Likely to Take Middle-of-the-Road Character

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 91st Congress leaders indicate is likely to take on the belt-tightening, middle-of-the-road character of the Eisenhower years waded into the real work of its first session today. After a joint House-Senate meeting to certify Richard M. Nixon as President-elect and debate a rare challenge to the Electoral College system, the House hoped to take up proposed pay raises for congressmen, Cabinet members and the President.

Among the Senate's first order of business are pre-inauguration hearings on Nixon's Cabinet nominees — and the biennial effort to make filibusters easier to cut off. Senate Democratic leaders also plan early work on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty held over from the last session although there appeared little hope for ratification before President Johnson leaves office.

Prospects that the 91st Congress would see a period of reassessment following years of innovative social legislation — reminiscent of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's administration — was seen Sunday by three ranking congressional figures.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield noted the voluminous Great Society and other legislation passed during the Kennedy and Johnson administrations and pictured the 91st Congress' tenure as a time to reorganize.

"I think perhaps we may have passed too much legislation," he said.

Terrorists Kill Official of Vietnam

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Education Minister Le Minh Tri died in a hospital today, victim of the first terrorist attack against a major South Vietnamese political figure in more than a year.

Cut down by a grenade explosion that demolished his car on a downtown Saigon street, Tri was 46.

Across the country, the Viet-Cong and North Vietnamese generally avoided battle, as they have done for several months.

U.S. and South Vietnamese forces reported more small clashes, arms finds, air strikes and light shelling. Fifty to 60 large-scale allied sweeping operations were under way, including a drive by 5,000 U.S. Marines and government troops around the abandoned fortress of Khe Sanh and a U.S. Army-Navy push in the Plain of Reeds west of Saigon.

Spokesmen said the big sweep operations are designed to keep the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong off balance, to ferret out their supplies and to prevent any massing of the enemy for an offensive. So far they have encountered little resistance.

Hospital officials in Saigon said Education Minister Le Minh Tri was in "extremely critical" condition after an explosion demolished his car in downtown Saigon, killed his driver and wounded two bodyguards and a pedestrian.

One report said a Vietnamese on a motorbike threw a grenade into the car and escaped. But there was some speculation that the blast might have been a time bomb secured to the car.

Tri, 46, studied at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. He was appointed three months ago to head South Vietnam's controversial education ministry, considered one of the nation's most difficult jobs. Many of the students are Viet Cong activists or sympathizers.

Guards were placed around Saigon's French-run Grall Hospital to prevent further attempts on his life.

On the war front, U.S. headquarters said 38 enemy were killed Sunday, 32 of them by aircraft, in one engagement about 70 miles north of Saigon.

Prison Supt. Victor Urban said George Brimhall, 32, was stabbed to death and J. W. Moore, 36, was stabbed in the neck and hospitalized.

Urban said Randy Arnold, 18, serving five years from Greene County for assault with intent to kill and burglary and grand larceny, had confessed to stabbing Moore.

Carlton Carney, 18, serving 21 years for second-degree murder from Franklin County, confessed to stabbing Brimhall, Urban said. Another inmate aid so is being held in the Brimhall death, he said.

Arnold is being held in the Pulaski County jail and the other two inmates were jailed at Pine Bluff, Urban said.

Lodge Has Reputation for Taking Hard Line View of Vietnam War

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Nixon announced today that he will nominate J. Phil Campbell Jr., Georgia's commissioner of agriculture and a Democrat turned Republican, to be under secretary of agriculture.

Nixon's decision was relayed to newsmen by Clifford Harden, secretary of agriculture designate.

Harden also said that Clarence D. Palmby, a Minnesota farmer who is executive vice president of the U.S. Feed Grain Council, will be nominated as assistant secretary for international affairs and commodity programs.

In that role, Palmby will serve as president of the Commodity Credit Corp., which accounts for the bulk of Agriculture Department spending on farm subsidies.

These appointments were announced a day after Nixon let it be known that Henry Cabot Lodge, who has a reputation for taking a hard-line attitude toward the Vietnam war will head the American delegation to the

Sirhan Will Go to Trial on Tuesday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, a 24-year-old Jordanian charged with murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, goes on trial Tuesday in a heavily guarded courtroom where windows have been reinforced with steel as a security measure.

Sirhan, dark and slight, is accused of shooting Kennedy in a narrow kitchen corridor of the Ambassador Hotel June 5 minutes after the New York Democrat proclaimed victory in California's presidential primary.

The trial may last more than two months. Both the defense and the prosecution estimate nearly 200 witnesses may be called.

Because of the small courtroom in the Los Angeles Hall of Justice can accommodate only 75 spectators, accredited newsmen will view a videotaped recording of the proceedings in a room four floors below.

The defendant's mother, Mary, and two brothers in the Los Angeles area plan to attend the trial. The father is staying near Jerusalem.

Superior Court Judge Herbert V. Walkern 69, dean of Los Angeles' Criminal Division, will be on the bench. Twenty-one years ago, he decreed the death penalty for Caryl Chessman, who died in the gas chamber in 1960 on kidnap-rape convictions after a 12-year legal battle.

There will be three prosecuting attorneys and three for the defense.

Defense Head Names Three Secretaries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense-designate Melvin R. Laird today named

Rhode Island Gov. John H. Chafee to be secretary of the Navy and Massachusetts Institute of Technology professor Robert C. Seamans Jr. to be secretary of the Air Force.

In a surprise reappointment, Stanley R. Resor was nominated to stay on as secretary of the Army.

The nominations must be confirmed by the Senate.

All three men appeared before newsmen at a news conference held by Laird.

It was the second round of high-level defense appointments made by the new defense chief for the Nixon administration.

Earlier Laird had selected David Packard, multimillionaire head of a California electronics firm, to be his No. 2 man in the Defense Department as deputy secretary.

Chafee, 46, leaves office as governor of Rhode Island Tuesday. He succeeds Paul R. Ignatius, who has been civilian head of the Navy since September 1967.

Laird smilingly said Chafee, a former Marine, "ran into a little difficulty in the last election" over a Rhode Island sales tax issue.

Chafee was defeated by Democrat Frank R. Licht in the November election.

Seamans has served at Massachusetts Institute of Technology as a teacher and project manager for 14 years and has held posts in the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Laird said Seamans has a fine background in science and "understands the problem of space technology" today.

Seamans succeeds Air Force Secretary Harold Brown.

Laird said Resor, a veteran of the regimes of former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and the present defense chief Clark M. Clifford, was chosen to give his new Pentagon administrative team an element of continuity.

Memorial to Youth Shot Fatally

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — About 1,500 persons gathered at the Civic Center here Sunday for a peaceful memorial service to a Pine Bluff youth who was shot fatally last week by a Pine Bluff Policeman.

Several persons delivered speeches at the service in which they called for a Civilian Advisory Board to be established to investigate the shooting.

The city Police Department conducted its investigation into the shooting of Roosevelt Johnson, 13, by Patrolman Bill Goodman. Johnson was shot when he allegedly jumped from a reported stolen car and began running.

Prosecutor Joe Holmes of Pine Bluff said he planned to ask Circuit Court Judge Henry W. Smith today about the possibility of summoning the Jefferson County Grand Jury to investigate the shooting.

Two Arrested for Liquor Law Violations

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Two Pope County men were arrested Sunday for liquor law violations by state Alcoholic Beverage Control agents and the Pope County Sheriff's Department.

Officers said Joe Dixon Russellville was charged with illegal sale of whiskey in a dry county, over-possession of liquor, possession of liquor for sale and selling on Sunday. He posted $1,000 bail. Officers confiscated 102 pints of whiskey and some beer.

Dixon's uncle, Leonard Dixon, of London was charged with selling alcohol in a dry county, possession for sale and overpossession. He was released on $500 bail. Officers confiscated 87 pints of wine.

Teen-Age Volunteer Workers 'GO MOD' To Support March of Dimes Programs

Teen-age volunteers for the March of Dimes are following the lead of their national chairman, TV star Kathy Garver, as they "GO MOD" in a meaningful manner.

They work extremely hard to raise money for the March of Dimes (MOD) fight to prevent birth defects, and they work equally hard on the community service and education programs needed to win that fight.

For example, Teen Age Program (TAP) volunteers for the March of Dimes brought the good old summertime to handicapped children in Portsmouth, Va., this year.

TAPs in this southern city hosted a recreational project praised by Portsmouth Health Department and civic organization co-sponsors. Their unanimous verdict was that TAPs reached the children in a way that adults could not.

The Portsmouth teen-agers devoted the summer holidays to making summer as much fun for physically handicapped children as it is for boys and girls enjoying normal health. Each TAP became a "buddy" to a particular youngster. They drove the children to and from the city park, where games and arts and crafts classes were set up for them. They played checkers, catch-ball games, held sing-alongs, read stories and helped their small charges romp through other specially planned activities.

The Portsmouth project was only one outlet for the thousands of March of Dimes TAPs who serve communities across the nation year-round. In cities, towns and rural centers they help to support the March of Dimes in its nationwide program to prevent birth defects. Since 1958, when the voluntary health organization re-directed its energies and resources from the successful war on polio, it has established more than 100 Birth Defects Centers. The extensive March of Dimes program includes patient care, research, professional education and public health information programs.

Despite our nation's excellent health standards, a quarter of a million infants are born each year with physical or mental defects. As future

But TAPs do more than attend conferences. A whirlwind Miami, Fla. TAP, Maria Landry, 18, recruited teen-agers to renovate quarters for a local Birth Defects Center, spoke before a youth group about birth defects and helped the Northeast Miami Junior Women's Club and B'nai B'rith to sponsor county-wide youth conferences. She also arranged layette showers for needy mothers and enlisted more than 300 young people to serve as volunteers for non-professional duties at Jackson Memorial Hospital.

Susan Merritt, 18, of Colton, Calif., teen chairman of the March of Dimes San Bernardino County Chapter, was awarded a Junior Volunteer Service Award by the Mayor and City Council for her outstanding community service. Miss Merritt organized many successful education programs for young people and also helped raise more than $10,000 for the March of Dimes.

overcome the main force units of the Viet Cong. We've shown that we knew how to overcome the battalions of the army of North Vietnam. . . I think we've made a lot of progress."

April 30, 1966—while en route to Washington for consultations with President Johnson, Lodge said: "I think we are ahead of what we were last summer and are very much ahead of what we were last spring."

May 5, 1966—"I don't think there is any doubt that the United States is going to stay in South Vietnam and do what is necessary to succeed. . . . The national government (of South Vietnam) does not have control or exert power throughout the country. . . . When they have achieved control, the war will be over."

June 25, 1966—"On the military side, the government is going particularly well."

Nov. 14, 1966—"When we have beaten the army of North Vietnam and the main force battalions of the Viet Cong, we have simply won the opportunity to get through to the heart of the matter, which is more than 150,000 terrorist guerrillas highly organized throughout the country and looking exactly like civilians." This phase of the struggle, Lodge said, "is not really rolling on a wholesale basis," although in terms of the main military effort, "I would expect a very different military situation indeed here by next year."

Dec. 6, 1961 Lodge said the war in Vietnam "just might fade out." He said, "I think you could say that they cannot win. I think you could say that we cannot lose, we cannot be pushed out. I think you could say we haven't won yet."

Jan. 8, 1967—"I would expect the percentage rate of American casualties to go down in '67. I would expect the conventional military war to achieve very sensational results in '67."

Jan. 11, 1967—"In 1967, the military may accomplish all that could be expected of them."

Jan. 12, 1967—"I believe the purely military part of the war—which is what the Americans are engaged in—will make tremendous progress in 1967 and that the percentage of American casualties will start declining."

March 16, 1967—"Just after resigning the ambassadorship, 'if we persist, there's no doubt about the outcome of the war.'"

March 21, 1967—Lodge said there was "absolutely" no prospect of peace talks. "All that talk is premature and it will also be that for a long time."

April 8, 1967—"If we could destroy this terrorist inner circle, the war would be virtually over."

April 25, 1967—"The picture is one of solid achievements behind us and difficult problems ahead."

Oct. 11, 1967—Lodge said the war cannot be won without military success, "but military success alone will not win it."

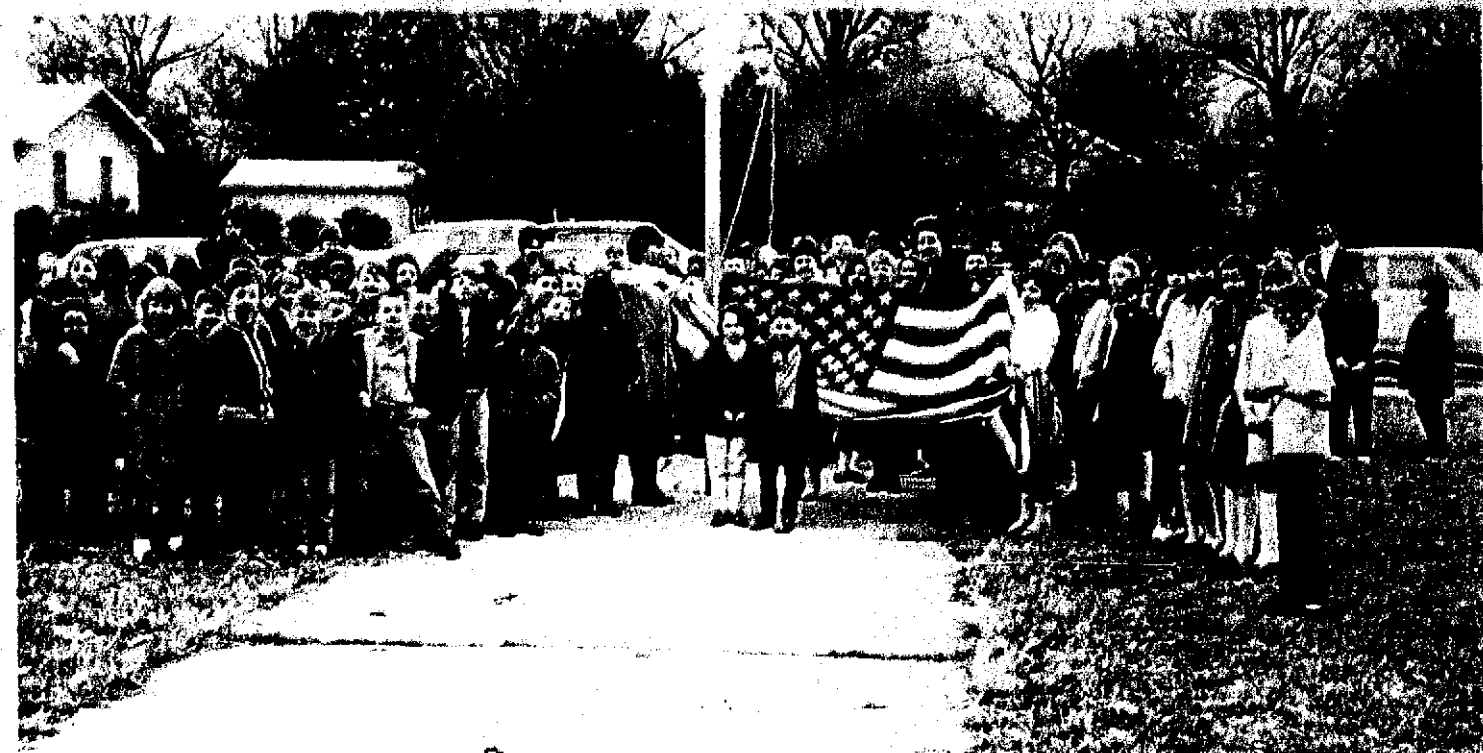

After his selection by Nixon to head the negotiating team, Lodge said the Paris talks "offer a hopeful forum for the definition of the interest of all parties involved and for the design of agreement to meet those interests."

He added that a peace formula "means weighing our views in the balance of justice, testing them against the principles of interest, and ordering them for purposes of compromise."

Tests for Foam

When buying urethane foam for mattresses or pillows, squeeze the foam firmly between thumb and index finger. It should return to shape as soon as you release it. Next, put your lips to it and blow hard. Good foam has open cells and you should be able to blow through it. Give it a good twist. The foam should immediately snap back. Don't worry about foam turning yellow. Nearly all white foam eventually yellows after exposure to the atmosphere.

Flag Raising at Garland School

Tracy and Randall Elledge watch as a new flag is raised by Gail Evans, Patty House, and Janice Cumble at Garland Elementary School. The flag was given in memory of their great uncle Alfred Benjamin Hollis.

In a ceremony at Garland Elementary School Thursday afternoon, January 2, a new United States flag was raised on the school's flagpole.

Mrs. Rosie Bryant had presented the flag to the school. It had been given to her by the United States Government in memory of her son Benjamin Hollis of Patmos, a World War II veteran and American Legion member, who died last fall. Mr. Hollis was the great uncle of Tracy and Randall Elledge, students at Garland Elementary School. Their parents are the Coy Elledges.

Lodge Long Involved in Vietnam

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, named Sunday by President-elect Nixon to head the Paris peace negotiating team, has been involved in the Vietnamese situation off and on since 1963.

Here is a compilation of statements Lodge has made in the past about the political and military aspects of the war, its chances for success and prospects for peace.

June 29, 1964—Just after he resigned as ambassador to help former Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton in his unsuccessful fight for the Republican presidential nomination, Lodge said: "In Vietnam, the aim of the struggle is to create a proper political atmosphere. That's how you beat the Communists there. . . I don't see the need for more troops in Vietnam. I think our policy there of relying on the Vietnamese to win with our help is the right policy." He said he had chosen this particular time to return to the United States because "things in Vietnam started to go better."

Aug. 18, 1964—"There is no question about our determination to see this thing through." He added, however, "We don't believe in a military solution and the military don't believe in it either. Our goal is a political solution."

May 19, 1965—Lodge defended the bombing of North Vietnam, but said, "By itself, it will not bring an end to the war." Discussing a six-day lull in the bombing, he said, "I think it was permissible to stop them (the raids) for a few days." As for negotiations, Lodge said that as far as U.S. allies in Asia are concerned, the less talk of negotiations, the better.

Sept. 6, 1965—Just after returning to Vietnam for a second tour of duty as ambassador, Lodge said that when he left "there was a question in many people's minds of the chances of success in the effort to ward off Viet Cong aggression. Now I find an atmosphere in which it is generally agreed that the Viet Cong cannot win militarily."

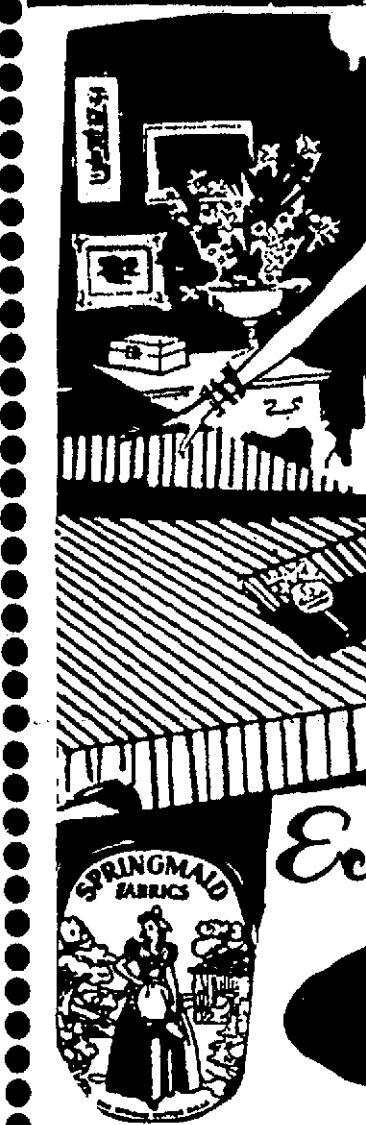

Dec. 21, 1965—"I think finally, after a great deal of trial and error, we and the Vietnamese have learned to braid together the different strands of Vietnam. We are on the right track. It is now a question of having forward motion."

Jan. 16, 1961—"Persistent execution of the political and military plans which have been agreed to will bring victory."

Feb. 14, 1966—"I maintain that a stalemate is better than defeat."

March 28, 1966—"The situation in Vietnam will 'improve as time goes on.'"

April 23, 1966—Lodge said the political confusion in Vietnam had hampered the war effort, but "a great deal of military success was achieved during the last month and I believe the lost time can be made up. . . . We showed that we knew how to LUCKY DOG gets attention from actress Lana Wood during one of her regular visits to the San Fernando Valley Animal Shelter in greater Los Angeles. Miss Wood, an animal lover, rescues unclaimed cats and dogs from the pound and finds them homes among her friends.

By BOB COCHNAR
NEA Automotive Editor

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—For a few days recently, a Senate subcommittee did its best to extract howls of pain from a few segments of the automotive industry, and, at the same time, make a few constituent-pleasing headlines.

Subjects under scrutiny were the galloping costs of car repair and the quality of that repair. The ugly word "racket" found its way into the testimony. Upshot of three days of questioning was:

Consumers unfortunate enough to have trouble with their cars may be paying a lot more than they should for shoddy servicing. To which Average American Driver might have replied:

"So what else is new?"

Response from dealers was predictable. After all the toe-stomping and ox-goring, Tom Williams, president of the National Automobile Dealers Association, summoning all his powers of rebuttal, found it necessary to say that the charges are so absurd that "they will fall on their faces because American people know better."

"They operate their automobiles and they know it is a marvelous piece of machinery, that it is just a wonder it does not give us more trouble than it does."

In effect, Williams tells us to shut up and stop making waves; we don't know how well off we are. And a Wisconsin dealer, so upset with the Washington deliberations, was moved to write his local newspaper (demanding front-page play) that "as long as we are talking about gyms, high price for service and getting no results, why don't we get off the automobile industry's back for awhile and pick on some other services of life, such as doctors, hospitals, etc., namely the medical profession."

Of course. Let's take turns (it might appear that this dealer has been stung by a stiff medical bill recently). But unfortunately for the dealer, it's now the automotive industry's turn.

Anybody who owns a car will easily remember the last time he visited his friendly local garage or dealer. Unless he knew precisely what ailed his machine, the diagnosis was left to the mechanic. And so was the price of the repair. If the owner was lucky, he got off easy. If not, well, you know the story.

Were it not for the fact that all those ads and commercials for your new 1969 Zip promised power, economy, beauty and care-free driving you might indeed understand that the automobile is a complicated few tons of machinery quite capable of messing up. But no: you have been told that it is the finest example of 20th century engineering and design and, boy, do we Americans know how to put cars together.

Furthermore, we are led to believe that more or less regular injections of petroleum products, a new set of points and plugs and a check to make sure the tires have a decent amount of air in them guarantee 50,000 miles of effortless driving.

So, when Williams' "marvelous piece of machinery" all of a sudden stutters and quits, we are perplexed and, finally, infuriated. Is it any wonder then, when we are told by Friendly Dealer that the inboard frammis is fouled and it will cost $39.50, that we are willing to believe even idle talk of "gyp," "racket," "gouge" and "clip"?

Since the Senate was willing to dig into this can of worms in the first place, it is only reasonable to assume it will consider a solution or two. Now comes the hard part. What must be done?

Licenses the repair industry, somebody says. Make sure those cats who tinker

A CONTINUED STORY OF HELP!

In our November Report To Members we noted the largest payment made for care of one Arkansas member was $11,006.35. This was a partial payment, and while still hospitalized his benefits continued to help pay the bills. Last month an additional payment of $2,008.25 was made for a grandtotal of $13,014.60 for medical and hospital services for one Arkansas member. No wonder then, over 260,000 Arkansas people rely on Blue Cross and Blue Shield for the MOST HELP... when they NEED IT MOST! Do you?

with $3,000-plus worth of machinery know what they're doing.

But there aren't enough mechanics, goes the response. Half of them may fail the test and then the waiting list for repairs exceeds that of the friendly ophthalmologist.

Get more mechanics. Is the rejoinder. The trade is reasonably well-paying. Isn't it? But hasn't everybody been saying that the way to get ahead in America is with a college degree and a white collar and a comfy office and an IBM machine? Besides, don't mechanics (finch) work with their hands?

Well, make Detroit build better cars, cars which come close to what the ads promise. Aha! Cut down on the frequency of repairs and you lessen the problem, right? Wrong. You increase the purchase price and make car ownership prohibitive. Few things ever go wrong with Rolls-Royces, remember, but they cost $17,000 a copy. Besides, haven't we been told that it's poor form to keep a car more than three or four years?

Then couldn't car owners learn more about how their cars work, maintain them properly, perhaps even look at the owner's guide, realize that no machine—regardless of how expensive it is or how well it is built—does not putter on forever without a malfunction?

You mean me, owner? You want me to get my hands dirty? Look at the engine? Put in my own oil? You must be out of your mind. Other people do that.

But didn't you say those "other people" gouge you? Don't know what they're doing?

Well, maybe the Senate has the answers.
